

Science Pub

2017 FALL LINEUP

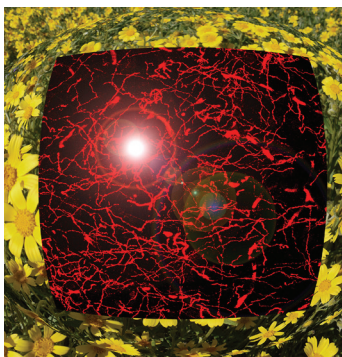

The Great American Eclipse MONDAY, AUGUST 14

Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History's Astronomy Programs Manager, Javier Rivera, shares everything you will want and need to know about the upcoming total solar eclipse.

Perceiving in a Net MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

Consciousness is trapped in an ancient fiber meshwork that we see but don't understand.
Join UCSB Associate Professor of Neuroscience, Dr. Skirmantas Janusonis, for a discussion about new findings and why serotonin can change the way we perceive the brain itself.

Bug Appetit' MONDAY, OCTOBER 9

Insects will play a huge role in addressing future food insecurity challenges. Join Aly Moore, Entomophagist,
on a unique and thrilling journey into the world of edible insects that will open your mind and stomach.

2ND MONDAY OF EVERY MONTH

6:30–8:00 PM

Arrive early for a meal and drink... seats fill up fast!

at Dargan's Irish Pub & Restaurant

18 E. Ortega Street

sbnature.org/sciencepub