How to Navigate Through Graduate School SY 2022-2023 Orientation

September 2022 Edition

This Resource Partnership Project is brought to you by

The Graduate Division, the Graduate Student Association and the Graduate Student Resource Center

About this Resource Packet

Making the transition to graduate school can be an exciting but also anxious time. The UC Santa Barbara Graduate Division, Graduate Student Association, and Graduate Student Resource Center partner with many offices across campus to coordinate services that students need to be academically successful and to experience optimal well-being.

DISABLED STUDENTS PROGRAM (DSP)

The DSP provides academic accommodations to students with disabilities. Students with disabilities are responsible for ensuring that DSP is aware of their disabilities and for providing DSP with appropriate documentation. DSP is located at 2120 Student Resource Building and serves as the campus liaison regarding issues and regulations related to students with disabilities. The DSP staff works in an advisory capacity with a variety of campus departments to ensure that equal access is provided to all disabled students. As Graduate Student, you have access to:

Extended time to degree plans

DSP in coordination with the Graduate Division as well as providers and/or treatment team may work to create an extended time to degree plan that allows graduate students to maintain good academic standing while taking fewer courses per quarter or taking a longer time to complete program milestones.

Comprehensive exam accommodations

DSP may work with departments and faculty to address barriers introduced by some formats of comprehensive exams. DSP will coordinate with the student and department to address inclusivity of format and recommend accessible modifications which may include extended time, modified exam format, etc.

CAMPUS LEARNING ASSISTANCE SERVICES (CLAS)

CLAS helps students understand course concepts, engage students in the learning process, guide students toward discovering solutions to problems, and encourage students to become independent thinkers and lifelong learners. While many CLAS services are geared toward undergraduates, many of their academic skills and language development workshops are also open to graduate students.

GRADUATE WRITERS' ROOM

Whether you are working on your first seminar paper, putting the finishing touches on your dissertation, or just trying to catch up on some grading, the Graduate Writers' Room is here for you. Come work alongside your fellow graduate students, all while enjoying snacks and the best free coffee on campus!

gradpost.ucsb.edu/writers-room

OMBUDS OFFICE

The Office of the Ombuds is a safe place to come and discuss workplace issues, interpersonal conflict, academic concerns, bureaucratic runarounds, and many other problems. They serve faculty, staff, students, parents, and anyone else with a campus-related concern. All discussions are kept confidential. You can get in touch with them as a first step, as a last resort, or at any point along the way.

COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

CAPS' mission is to assist Student Affairs and the University in helping the student body achieve academically, socially, and personally through culturally responsive mental health services. CAPS is committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and affirming environment to ensure that all students remain psychologically healthy in pursuit of their goals. All registered students are eligible for services at CAPS. When help is needed in sorting out a personal concern, CAPS is a resource for learning new skills in building self-confidence, relating to others, reducing stress, solving problems, and identifying options.

CAPS Support Groups

CAPS hosts multiple discussion groups specifically for graduate students to share their experiences, voice their concerns, and find a greater community: "Graduate Student Process Group" and "Creating Community: A Support Space for Graduate Students of African Heritage".

caps.sa.ucsb.edu

MENTAL HEALTH PEER SERVICES

The MHPS helps students navigate the college experience more effectively. The MHPS provides:

- Drop-In Peer Counseling: the peers are trained to help students better manage some of the daily stressors from school & relationships. Stop by to talk and learn new tools to manage your current challenges.
- Massage & Egg Chair: Feeling stressed by life? Just want to practice good self care? Stop in to try out one of the 4 massage chairs or the egg chair to hit the reset button on your day and make everything feel a little bit better.
- Workshops: Learn how to better understand and manage your stressors, cope with academic anxiety, and become a master at relaxation by attending one of our workshops held throughout the quarter.
- School Anxiety Program: it includes three 1-hour long one-on-one sessions with a peer who will help you to learn important time management, coping, and relaxation skills to reduce your anxiety.

HOSFORD COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES CLINIC

The Hosford Clinic is a university-based community clinic that is designed to provide culturally sensitive, low-cost individual, couple, family, and group psychological treatment to the entire Santa Barbara community. We serve the general public as well as students, faculty, and staff from our local universities/colleges. The Hosford Clinic serves as a training site for students in the Department of Counseling, Clinical, and School Psychology (CCSP) of the University of California, Santa Barbara and as a clinical-research facility for the faculty and students of the CCSP Department.

STUDENT MENTAL HEALTH COORDINATION SERVICES

The SMHCS office is the single point of contact for the campus community to report concerns about a student in distress or a student distressing others. If you are worried about a fellow Gaucho, please refer to the Distressed Students Protocol for assistance determining an appropriate referral.

Distressed Students

The guide Responding to Distressed Students is an online excellent resource for providing information that may help in recognizing and responding to students in distress and making appropriate referrals.

PSYCHIATRIC SERVICES

Student Health has psychiatrists and social workers who are available by referral from either Counseling and Psychological Services or primary care clinicians within Student Health. The psychiatrists provide evaluations and, if indicated, medication and short-term supportive psychotherapy. Students with UC Student Health Insurance Plan (UC SHIP) are not charged for these visits; students covered by other insurance will be billed through BARC.

studenthealth.sa.ucsb.edu/behavioral-health/psychiatric-services

TELEMEDICINE CARE

Students enrolled in UC SHIP (UC's student health insurance program) can connect with a licensed medical professional or behavioral health professional virtually via smartphone, tablet, or computer using the LiveHealth Online service. No referral is needed, no co-pays, and LiveHealth directly bills SHIP Anthem Blue Cross (CA) for the telemedicine appointment.

studenthealth.sa.ucsb.edu/insurance/telemedicine-care

SOCIAL WORK SERVICES

Student Health provides social services specializing in complex needs counseling, community referrals, academic adjustments around leaves of absence, ADHD screening, insurance consultation, and medical advocacy.

studenthealth.sa.ucsb.edu/behavioral-health/social-work-services

ALCOHOL AND DRUG PROGRAM

The UCSB Alcohol & Drug Program (ADP), a part of UCSB Student Health, strives to create a safe, healthy, and learning-conducive environment through the promotion of healthy choices concerning the use of alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs. The program emphasizes the elimination of harmful use, high-risk behavior, and related violence, and offers free, confidential counseling to all UCSB students.

Individual appointments can be made by calling (805) 893-5013, at the Student Health lobby appointment desk, or online through the Gateway link on the home page.

EATING DISORDER SUPPORT

Eating Disorders are complex and require several treatment modalities. UCSB Student Health has support to help students well enough to be in school, including:

- medical monitoring
- psychiatric evaluation
- nutrition support

GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION (GSA)

University Center Room 6052

The GSA is the elected representative government for UCSB graduate students and offers activities, grants, and opportunities to get involved on campus.

gsa.ucsb.edu

THE GRADUATE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Graduate Division's Graduate Scholars Program aims to provide a welcoming, collaborative, interdisciplinary research environment that thrives on the wide-ranging perspectives and experiences of a diverse population of students, a place where students can grow, excel and develop professionally, and one which will prepare them for careers of substance and impact. Click the link below to find out more about related resources.

graddiv.ucsb.edu/GSP

MULTICULTURAL CENTER (MCC)

University Center Room 1504

Through the medium of high-powered educational programming, the MCC has been an agent for change on campus and in the greater Santa Barbara area. By partnering with academic departments, departments within the division of Student Affairs, and student groups, the Center conceptualizes and presents scholarly programs, performances, art shows, and facilitated discussions that enhance our awareness and inclusivity of all people.

mcc.sa.ucsb.edu

RESOURCE CENTER FOR GENDER AND SEXUAL DIVERSITY (RCSGD)

Student Resource Building 3rd Floor

The RCSGD works with students, staff and faculty to ensure that LGBTQ identities, experiences and concerns are represented and addressed at UCSB. The center aims to create a vibrant and engaging environment through social and educational programming, volunteer and leadership opportunities, a comfortable and welcoming social and study space and professional and student staff members for support and advocacy. The RCSGD hopes that all LGBTQ students can thrive at UCSB, feeling safe, affirmed and valued on campus.

The RCSGD has worked with students and campus staff to create more safe and accessible restrooms for transgender and gender queer students, staff, faculty, alumni, and UCSB visitors.

LUNCH & LEARN

Lunch & Learn is a monthly informal seminar series that provides grad students with two important things: free lunch and a chance to socialize with and learn from their peers from across the campus. Each event features 15-minute talks by two graduate students – one from a STEM discipline (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) and one from a SHEF discipline (Social Science, Humanities, Education, and Fine Arts).

gradpost.ucsb.edu/lunch-and-learn

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS & SCHOLARS (OISS)

Student Resource Building 3rd Floor

OISS serves UCSB's international students and scholars. OISS issues immigration documents for incoming students and hosts CALI Training, an online and in-person orientation program for international students. All incoming international students will need to complete CALI Training. OISS provides ongoing advising and support for international students, and hosts cultural programs throughout the year to help international students thrive at UCSB.

Check out their welcome guide for international students.

oiss.sa.ucsb.edu

UNDOCUMENTED STUDENTS SERVICES (USS)

Student Resource Building 2nd Floor

USS practices a solution-focused, intercultural, intersectional, and social justice approach that provides personalized support, programs, services, and resources. USS strives to develop a strong sense of awareness and understanding of the experiences of undocumented students and immigrant communities by providing resources and tools for UCSB campus community to support undocumented students and their communities.

sa.ucsb.edu/dreamscholars/home

WOMEN'S CENTER

Student Resource Building 1st Floor

The Women's Center is the primary organization on campus dedicated to providing education on women's issues, feminism, healthy masculinities, and gender and social equity. In addition, they serve as a conduit for many other women's and social justice organizations, and a site for mentorship and external educational programs. Their space and programs are available to all individuals of all genders interested in understanding how gender shapes our social world, and how we can work to eliminate all forms of gender-based oppression. Students, faculty, staff, and community members are encouraged to participate in the Women's Center in various ways, for example, by attending an event, studying in the Center library, or gathering with friends for lunch.

WOMXN IN SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING (WISE)

WiSE is a nonprofit campus organization that promotes equal opportunity for women and girls in science and engineering in order to improve their scientific and career advancement. WiSE encourages the participation of all science/engineering undergraduates, graduates, researchers, faculty, and professionals in the Santa Barbara area.

www.wise.ucsb.edu

SOCIETY FOR ADVANCEMENT OF CHICANOS AND NATIVE AMERICANS IN SCIENCE (SACNAS)

SACNAS serves as a support group for students in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics). The society strives to promote both minority students and diversity in the STEM fields through professional development events, guest speakers, community service events, and high school outreach programs. SACNAS encourages Chicano, Hispanic, and Native American students, along with students of other ethnic backgrounds, to pursue higher education and assists them in obtaining the advanced degrees necessary for scientific research, industry, leadership, and teaching careers at all levels.

GRADUATE STUDENT RESOURCE CENTER (GSRC)

The GSRC offers a number of resources on finding funding for your research as well as personal finance matters such as loans, credit, insurance, and taxes. Take advantage of their ongoing workshops, one-on-one advising, and extensive online resources.

gradpost.ucsb.edu/funding-resources

GSA EMERGENCY RELIEF GRANT

The GSA Emergency Relief Grant was approved by the UCSB graduate student body in 2011 and is designed to help graduate students who are experiencing sudden financial distress due to unforeseen circumstances. The amount of an award ranges between $100 and $1000 depending upon individual circumstances.

gsa.ucsb.edu/emergency-relief-grant

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION LOANS

The Alumni Association provides $250 in emergency loan monies, with varying repayment terms to Graduate students only (undocumented AB540 students are eligible) who are experiencing a financial emergency. The student must submit an application form with valid photo ID. Visit the UCSB Alumni Association office in the Mosher Alumni House, located off of Mesa Road and near Campbell Hall. Applications not submitted in person will not be considered.

To verify availability of funding or to schedule an appointment, call (805) 893-3767.

FINANCIAL CRISIS RESPONSE TEAM

The UCSB Financial Crisis Response Team exists to assist students who are facing a financial crisis or urgent financial need. This effort aims to assist undergraduate and graduate students who are facing significant financial difficulties that jeopardize their path to graduation. The team works closely to evaluate, respond, and support students in crisis in a streamlined and timely manner. If you are experiencing a crisis, email the Financial Crisis Response Team the details and they will work with you to develop a plan of action. Depending on the situation, you will either be asked to answer a few questions about the situation in an on-line form or be asked to meet in person with an advisor in the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships, or both. An advisor will help guide you through the process. This effort was put in place to help undergraduate students as well as graduate students. Additionally, an emergency loan program has been established to assist international students in need.

food.ucsb.edu/about/committees/financial-crisis-response-team

STUDENT MEDICAL EMERGENCY RELIEF FUND

SMERF was designed to assist UCSB students experiencing medical emergencies and students who have graduated will be eligible up to one quarter after their graduation date if they incurred a medical emergency during a quarter in which they were enrolled. Moreover, a student is eligible if they are unable to pay existing, anticipated or outstanding medical expenses.

Any inquiries can be directed to the SMERF Account Manager by email or at (805) 893-3253.

CAMPUS, ADVOCACY, RESOURCES, AND EDUCATION EMERGENCY FUND

CARE Program assists survivors of interpersonal violence by providing advocacy and accompaniment services. Professional advocates with CARE specialize in helping individuals heal after an experience with sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, stalking, or sexual harassment by connecting them to other campus and community resources and helping them navigate different medical, legal, and campus processes. To apply, contact CARE at (805) 893-4613 to schedule an appointment. If you have general questions about this fund, you can call the Women's Center office manager at (805) 893-3779.

care.ucsb.edu/home

WOMEN'S CENTER BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATERS FUND

The Women's Center provides small emergency grants to women who are single student parents. Grant amounts vary and are determined on a case-by-case basis.

To apply, first contact WGSE Director Betsy Kaminski by email or at (805) 893-3858 to schedule an appointment. Students can receive this grant a maximum of one time per year. The turnaround time is approximately 1-2 weeks.

womenscenter.sa.ucsb.edu/home

GUARDIAN SCHOLARS FUNDS

Emergency grants of varying amounts are available for Guardian Scholars (former Foster Youth) experiencing serious financial difficulties. Requests are reviewed by a committee in consultation with Financial Aid. To apply, contact Lisa Przekop in the Office of Admissions.

sa.ucsb.edu/guardianscholars/home

ORION MEDICAL FUND

The Orion Fund provides grants up to $5,000 toward uncovered medical costs, medical technology, educational costs, and living expenses to college students in California who are living with serious, non congenital illness and injury so they may continue working toward their educational goals. Grants are applied to cover the costs of medical crises that occurred within the previous year.

To apply, an application form, personal statement, letters from medical/other advisors, unofficial transcript, copies of medical or other bills are required.

theorionfund.org/grants.php

DANNY RILEY MEDICAL FUND

The Danny Riley Fund was created to assist students who are suffering from cancer and other serious, chronic illnesses, and to help them remain actively engaged in their educational careers and achieve their full potential. Grants of varying amounts are used to support these students and their families, thereby easing their financial burdens while attending to their medical needs.

To apply, contact the Disabled Students Program director at (805) 893-2182 or (805) 893-2668.

GRADUATE STUDENT PARENTS

Success in graduate school is more than just reading, writing, and researching. For graduate student parents, it is crucial to find adequate support and resources for your family in order to thrive as a scholar. Whether you already have children or are thinking about starting a family while in graduate school, UCSB has resources, support, and benefits to help you thrive.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

The Office of Student Conduct adjudicates academic and behavioral violations of the Student Conduct Code. We demand the highest academic and behavioral integrity and ensure community by repairing violations of trust through restorative practices and administrative resolution. Above all, we value humanity and honor identity throughout all of our processes.

The UCSB Student Conduct Code exists to support the standards of social and academic behavior to uphold an environment conducive to student learning. As Student Affairs professionals, we strive to embody the UC Santa Barbara Campus Regulations and the Student Affairs mission in what we promote to our students.

Please contact us directly by phone at (805) 893-5016 or by email, or submitting an online report.
