

UC SANTA BARBARA
Office of Black Student Development

Now Hiring 2021-2022

OBSD STUDENT STAFF EMPLOYEES

Graduate Student Assistants
DEADLINE EXTENDED

QUALIFICATIONS

1. Has completed one year of graduate study in residence at UCSB, is in good academic standing, is within university time-to-degree standards, and meets all other standard student employment eligibility requirements
2. Is energetic and knowledgeable about the UCSB campus, demonstrates organizational abilities and possesses good communication and interpersonal skills
3. Can represent undergraduate and graduate student interests and concerns, and is attentive to the goals of excellence and diversity in OBSD
4. Possesses strong writing, presentation, and interpersonal skills
5. Has previous experience in advising, teaching, and workshop planning is desirable, although training will be provided
6. Has familiarity of current trends of inclusivity and diversity in higher education
7. Has familiarity of current issues of sexual and gender diversity in higher education

Important Dates & Info

6/6 - Applications Due
6/14-6/24 - Interviews
9/6 - 9/17 - Training

$18.00 per hour
Plus additional benefits
10 hours per week

INTERESTED? SEND A COPY OF YOUR RESUME TO KLOUIS@UCSB.EDU

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS: With the appropriate eligibility and approval, the position may be combined with a GSR or TA position, as long as the combined hours do not exceed 75% appointment (or 50% appointment for international graduate students). The Graduate Division will pay partial fees and graduate student health insurance (Gaucho Health Insurance) equivalent to those provided for a 25% Taship if other student academic appointments or awards do not provide these fees.